	where colors, patterns, art and culture are expressed in a very special way.
10.00 a.m.	EXHIBITION: SAFETY SHAWLS
	In collaboration with SIND – the national association for mental health, Wool Days Thy has launched a campaign under the motto: 'Help us help others'. Selected shawls are exhibited at Wool Days Thy.
10.00-10.20	MUSIC AS WE ARRIVE
10.20 a.m.	OPENING SPEECH AND WELCOME BY LOTTE LITTAU KJÆRGAARD
10.30-11.30	LECTURE: THE STORY OF THY AND THE PEOPLE OF THY – AND THEIR CLOTHING AND NEEDLEWORK.
	Charlotte Boje H. Andersen, native Thybo, cultural historian and passionate knitter
	The story of Thy is also about textiles. From Bronze Age clothing over home-knitted and woven textiles to chicken knitting and surfers' wetsuits. History testifies to skill, frugality and a craving for luxury. The lecture gives the long story about the history of the area, but with a focus on what we know about clothing and needlework and various other things. There is a guarantee of textile nerdiness, but also an introduction to the beautiful Thy.
12.00-12.30	SOFA KNIT TALK ABOUT THE CREATION OF THE SAFETY SHAWL
	Sofa Knit Talk – a conversation with knitting designer Bodil Højberg and organizer of Wool Days Thy Lotte Littau Kjærgaard about the project with the 'Safety Shawl' – a collaboration with SIND – the national association for mental health.
	TV journalist Rigmors Sams is the host.
13.00-14.00	LECTURE: SHETLAND – A PARADISE FOR KNITTERS BY CHRISTEL SEYFARTH
	Christel Seyfarth, knitting designer and long-time organizer of Fanø Knitting Festival.
	Experience Christel Seyfarth and not least her passion for Shetland and not least knitting in this interesting lecture. "Everyone has heard of Shetland and their fantastic knitting traditions and not least wool products. Visiting these islands is a very inspiring experience for us knitters. I have been to Shetland several times, both alone and with knitting groups, and I have put together a lovely lecture with all the best from these trips. I'm showing lots of pictures from Shetland, both from nature and from the knitting-related visits I've had up there. In addition, we take a closer look at why they are so famous for their knitwear and what it is that characterizes a "real" Fair-Isle model. The lecture will be a mix of (knitting) inspiration and lovely stories from up there."
14.30-15.00	SOFA KNIT TALK WITH AUTHOR JANE ENEMARK
	Sofa Knit Talk - a conversation with Jane Enemark about the creation of her book 'Knit 1'
	TV journalist Rigmors Sams is the host.
15.00-16.00	TOUCH OF NATURE IN KNITTING – COMBINED LECTURE AND WORKSHOP
	Jorit Tellervo, painter, knitter and author
	HELLO BERRIES – now you get the chance to knit berries, leaves and flowers in buds. Based on berry and flower motifs, Jorit Tellervo has published the book 'Touches of Nature in Knitting'. Here, people and nature unite in beautiful patterns and colours. In this workshop we will knit snowberries, rowanberries and elderberries with green leaves. And Erantis – the first harbinger of spring of the year. While we knit, Jorit talks about knitting, art and relief. Bring knitting needles 3.5 or 4, yarn scraps in different colors, a darning needle and a pair of scissors. It is possible to buy the books 'Touches of Nature in Knitting' and 'Painting with Thread'
At 17.00	Wool Days Thy closes for today.
